Promotional Cards

Alpha Phi Omega, or APO, was founded by Scouts for Scouts — transporting the Scouting commitment to service into college, where service projects are a great way to give back, make friends and strengthen résumés.

In fact, you'll still find APO in the Scouts BSA Handbook. Page 438 (of both editions, boys and girls) tells readers that APO "encourages its members to continue their Scouting involvement through college connections."

APO is a service fraternity (rather than social, academic or professional), meaning young people can be APO members while still joining other Greek life organizations.

You'll find APO chapters all over the United States (and even in Canada and the Philippines). There's a chapter at the University of Alaska Anchorage, the University of Miami and pretty much everywhere in between. 270 chapters in the US!

To see if there's an APO chapter at your alma mater or a school your Scout is considering, use the chapter locator tool at <https://apo.org/start-a-chapter/chapter-map/>

A close-up photograph of a military uniform's lapel area. Several medals and ribbons are pinned. A prominent ribbon features vertical stripes of red, white, and blue. Below it is a silver eagle-shaped medal with the letters 'D S A' on its wings. To the left is a circular patch with a red, white, and blue design and a central emblem. Above the eagle is a metal bar with the words 'BE PREPARED' inscribed on it. The background is a dark blue fabric with a red stripe.

National Service Territory Chairs

An Opportunity to Serve

WE WANT YOU!

National Service Terr. Chairs

Our goal is to have an APO Eagles committee of territory resource chairs, with the goal of building relationships and resources. In turn, each chair to have its own committee of council-level representatives to work with building relationships and resources. Below is the territory Chair Position description, which can be easily translated to the council level.

Job Description

1. Identify and recruit APO Alumni who are Eagle Scouts into the Association
2. Identify and promote opportunities for APO involvement (whether it be APO Eagles or local chapters) within the National Service Territory
3. Serve as a resource to local Council Alumni Committees within the BSA National Service Territory
4. Identify prospective candidates for APO representatives to serve on local Council Alumni Committees
5. Promote Alpha Phi Omega within the National Service Territory to college-prospects
6. Promote and coordinate APO Eagle Scout certificates to be presented at Council Eagle Scout receptions or recognition events.
7. Participate in local council events as a representative of Alpha Phi Omega.
8. Coordinate local council representatives of APO Eagles within your National Service Territory
