Congratulations on completing your final step and becoming an Eagle Scout! Take a moment and enjoy this amazing achievement, plan your Eagle Court of Honor, and celebrate.

RICHARD NURTHEN

APO Eagles Vice President

Delta Rho 2003 - Rutgers University
Eagle Class of 1998, Camden Co. Council

I remember completing my Eagle Board of Review and holding my Eagle Court of Honor a few months later. It really did not set in that I'd achieved the highest rank in Scouting until my Scoutmaster pinned my Eagle Badge on my uniform. I often think back on night and use the memory to assist me as an adult.

Commonwealth University
Eagle Class of 1994, Robert E. Lee Council

When you head to college, I encourage you to look for a chapter of Alpha Phi Omega. Today, Alpha Phi Omega is a national, co-educational service fraternity – college students gathered together in an organization based on fraternalism and founded on the principles of the Boy Scouts of America. Its purpose is to develop leadership, promote friendship and provide service to humanity. Sounds familiar, that is because the fraternity is based on the principle of the scout oath & Law.

NESA is also an outlet for alumni to network and collaborates with one another, which may include establishing business connections and participating in service to the BSA or other organizations.
